

revert

/Reference manual/Z-related commands/Browsing commands

The revert command allows you to step back through those selections that either you inspected or cadiz selected for you. It can be used repeatedly to step back through all previous selections in the left or right-hand windows from the current session with cadiz. It is particularly useful following a command that has caused a different document to be displayed in the right-hand window.

IT 10-Oct-1997