

next use

/Reference manual/Z-related commands/Browsing commands

The next use command is applicable to a name that refers to a declaration, and which is not the last use of that declaration. It causes the next typeset use of that declaration to be selected. It also indicates if there are any intervening uses that are not typeset.

IT 4-Apr-1998